Tailored Communications

Our 360° Degree Campaigns deliver comprehensive insider risk awareness through tailored and coordinated multi-channel outreach:

> Videos

Engage employees with dynamic videos that illustrate emerging trends, best practices, and real-world scenarios to boost awareness and retention.

> Physical Materials

Leverage posters, flyers, and other strategically placed material to keep critical insider risk messages top of mind in the workplace environment.

> Digital Materials

Deliver impactful messaging through an array of digital channels such as email campaigns, intranet posts, instant messaging, social media updates, and interactive web content.

> Events

Create interactive experiences such as webinars, and awareness days that foster dialogue, reinforce learning, and build a security-focused culture.

Your Full-Service Partner

Signpost Six delivers the leading end-to-end solution that combines expert communications, practical trainings and data-driven insights to transform behaviour and your organisation's security culture. We develop customised solutions from the ground-up, customised to your organisations style and operational needs, turning employees into the first line of defence.

Measurable Impact

Through tracking and analysing key metrics, we show how awareness translates into safer and more resilient organisations, demonstrating the true value of insider risk awareness initiatives.

Targeted Trainings

Our diverse training programmes and workshops prepare entire teams or individuals to identify, mitigate and respond to insider risk:

> Certified Programmes

We deliver structured learning programmes that culminate in certification, giving employees formal recognition of their insider risk management expertise.

> E-Learnings

Promote secure behaviour through short-format e-learning modules designed for all employees, making insider risk training quick, engaging, and easy to fit into busy schedules.

> Simulations

We create realistic, hands-on simulation experiences that enable employees to practice identifying and responding to insider risks in a safe, controlled environment.

> Workshops

We facilitate engaging group workshops that foster collaboration, discussion, and immersive learning focused on insider risk prevention and response.
